Who do you call when your Volvo truck (2004 Volvo VN 780, Dale Earnhardt Limited Edition) breaks down? Your friendly local Volvo Club member (1964 PV544, owned by Dick Libby of Seattle), of course. The photo was taken at a VCOA event at Volvo of Tacoma in August, 2004. Rick Tartar, the truck driver, was embarrassed to ask for a tow from a classic Volvo (40 years separate these two Volvos) but his towing insurance had expired.
